

Militia Reinforcements for Lines of Communication
January to June 1900

First Group:

Infantry:

4/Royal Lancaster

6/Royal Warwickshire

4/Derbyshire*

9/KRRC*

3/Durham Light Infantry*

3/South Lancashire

4/Argyll & Sutherland Highlanders*

Total 4,877

Arrived between 29 January 1900 and 13 February 1900

Embodied by Special Army Order of 23 November 1899

* Embodied by Special Army Order of 3 November 1899

These units later volunteered for South Africa.

Second Group:

Mountain & Garrison Artillery:

Antrim (1 coy)#

Donegal (1 coy)#

Durham (1 coy)#

Edinburgh (1 coy)#

Total 617

Arrived 16 April 1900

Engineers:

Anglesey

Monmouth

Total 256

Arrived 3 April 1900 and 28 June 1900

Infantry:

3/Royal Scots*

3/Royal West Kent*

3/East Kent

3/Royal Lancaster+

3/Norfolk+

4/Somerset Light Infantry*

4/West Yorkshire

4/Bedfordshire

3/Yorkshire##

6/Lancashire Fusiliers##

4/Cheshire+

3/South Wales Borderers+

3/King's Own Scottish Borderers+
4/Scottish Rifles*
3/East Lancashire+
3/West Riding

4/South Staffordshire
3/Welsh*

6/Middlesex##
4/North Staffordshire+
3/Leinster

5/Munster Fusiliers* (later renumbered 3rd)
5/Dublin Fusiliers*

Total 12,663

Arrived between 1 March 1900 and 28 March 1900

* Embodied by Special Army Order of 3 November 1899

Embodied by Special Army Order of 4 November 1899

Embodied by Special Army Order of 23 November 1899

Embodied by Special Army Order of 18 December 1899

+ Embodied by Special Army Order of 4 January 1900

Embodied by Special Army Order of 1 March 1900

 Embodied by Special Army Order of 17 February 1900

These units later volunteered for South Africa

Royal Commission on the South African War, 1903, App. 5